

RICHARD LINGARD

1st Assistant Director

Tel: 01295 760878
Mobile: 07831 386914
Bookings: admin@richardlingard.com
Web CV: hello.richardlingard.com

Misc: French language
Clean, full driving licence
Current First Aid Certificate (incl. Paediatric)
DBS checked

Commercials 1st Assistant Director

Summary Richard has worked on many commercials over the years, including campaigns for Chanel No 5 (dir. Lester Bookbinder); Fosters (dir. John Marles); American Express (dir. Annie Leibovitz) and L'Oreal (dir. David Bailey).

Locations include every region of the UK as well as India, France, Spain, Italy and the Czech Republic.

Recent Commercials

Little Fish Films – Sheba	dir. Gus Filgate	p. Bryony Harrison
Little Fish Films – Total	dir. Gus Filgate	p. Bryony Harrison
The Mob – PC World	dir. Vadim Jean	p. John Brocklehurst

TV Features & Shorts

1st Assistant Director / 2nd Unit Director

2004 “GEORGE III” (BBC)
Documentary dramatisation. Shot on location at Syon House and Weymouth.

“D-DAY TO BERLIN” (BBC)
Documentary dramatisation. Shot on location in Corby and Farnborough Hall, Northamptonshire. Starring Nickolas Grace.

2003 “LONDON” (BBC)
Documentary dramatisation presented by Peter Ackroyd. Shot on location in the City of London and Oxford Jail.

“BEING VICTORIA” (BBC)
Documentary dramatisation. Shot on location at Syon House. Directed by Louise Osmond. Starring Prunella Scales, Andrew Sachs, Timothy West and Charles Dance.

2002

"STRANGE" (BBC)

1st AD / Second Unit Director. First Block of 6-part supernatural series, directed by Joe Ahearne. Starring Richard Coyle, Sir Ian Richardson, and Sam Janus.

"TRUST" (BBC / Box TV)

First block of 6-part series set in the world of a City Corporate Law firm. Directed by John Strickland, starring Robson Greene. Shot at Twickenham Studios and City locations.

"FIFTEEN STOREYS HIGH" (BBC)

6-part TV series from the award-winning radio comedy, starring Sean Lock.

2001

"STRANGE" (BBC)

1st AD / Second Unit Director. Pilot Episode for the BBC1 supernatural drama series, starring Richard Coyle, Ian Richardson, and Sam Janus. Directed by Joe Ahearne.

"MURPHY'S LAW" (BBC / Tiger Aspect)

James Nesbitt starred in this Pilot Episode as an undercover cop who infiltrated a ruthless gang of diamond thieves. Directed by John Strickland.

2000

"PERFECT STRANGERS" (BBC / Talkback)

Written and directed by Stephen Poliakoff, this BAFTA nominated drama shot for 12 weeks in and around London and starred Matthew McFadyen, Lindsay Duncan, Sir Michael Gambon and Timothy Spall.

"REBEL HEART" (Picture Palace / BBC / RTE)

1st AD / Second Unit Director. Period action-drama set against the turbulent backdrop of the 1920's Irish Civil War. Shot for 13 weeks in Dublin and Co. Wicklow, this 4-part drama featured a spectacular array of battles, explosions and stunts. Directed by John Strickland.

"PERFECT" (ITV / RDF Television)

Starring Michelle Collins, this 150 minute 2-part drama was shot in just 35 days in London and Portsmouth. Directed by John Strickland.

Many more productions dating back to 1992 available on request.

More Recent Work (2004-15)

Taking a career break to bring up our family in recent years didn't mean I wasn't keeping busy-

2011 - current

Founder / Designer at Qanvas – web design and e-commerce websites. Learnt to code using HTML and CSS. Website content management for 15 clients.

2005 - current

Foundation Governor (Art and Design Technology), Chair of Assets and Health & Safety Committee, Chair of Fundraising Committee (£30,000 raised), Chair of New School Build Committee at Culworth Primary School, Northamptonshire.

2004 - 2014

Assistant Teacher (Art and Design), Maidford Montessori School, Northamptonshire.